We had 21 members in attendance at the meeting.

Joe Browning is still in need of member photos to complete the membership booklet. It was explained to the new members. The outing this past Saturday was nice.

Tim Hardesty reported the website is current with all other contest to date.

A virtual library has been set up on the Club's blog. Members can email the owner of the book and check it out during the next meeting. Books should be returned the following week unless other arrangements are made with the owner of the book.

Mike talked about the Traveling Show project. Members will enter several of their best images for selection via member votes. The images will be matted and framed and shown in places around the tri state area who are willing to show them. More details as this is worked out.
