

Ohio Valley Camera Club of West Virginia

October 20, 2011
Minutes

We had 20 members and one guest, Larry Long present. Welcome to new members David Ellis and Laura Bartram!

Joe Browning gave the Treasures Report. $972.14 total

Mike Adkins announced several members have done well in competitions outside of the club.

- Pam Decamp won Honorable Mention in the Digitally Enhanced class at the Foothills Art Festival in Jackson, Ohio. She also had a Purchase Award for BW print.
- Angie Albright-- 1st Place and Honorable Mention at St Mary's Competition
- Lisa Imhoff-- 2nd place in BW and Honorable Mention at St Mary's Competition
- Michael Rosenberg—Honorable Mention at Ironton Artist's Association

Suzanne Alexander is the author of "Cinderella Story" in the autumn addition of Huntington Quarterly magazine. Suzanne is also making camera soap in various colors. Please see her if interesting in purchasing or ordering soap.

Christmas Dinner will be December 1st at Marshall Café 6:00, Dinner starting at 7:00

Tom Schottle presented with a slide presentation on Underwater Photography. Tom used two strobes connected to an underwater camera with a 20mm lens. He explained how water absorbs color, at 30 feet you begin to lose red, and 90 feet monochrome blue/green. Tom showed slides of different ocean life, including, seahorse, angel fish, and squirrel fish.

Next meeting is November 3, 2011
Print Competition. Theme Autumn

Critiqued the images and announced the winners: 21 images were in the competition

Winners of the Projected Image Competition

Tyro Projected

1st place—Frank Pierson--“Carnival”

2nd place—Angie Albright—“Maybe One Day...”

3rd place—Mary Gibson—“Hinton Eagle”

Advanced Projected

1st place—Joe Browning—“Fire on the Mountain”

2nd place—Mike Adkins—“Healing Fields – 3000 Flags”

3rd place—Rick Jackson—“Troubled Waters”

Best of Show—Joe Browning—“Fire on the Mountain”

Submitted by: Angie Albright
Secretary